The service will be conducted by local religious leaders, in cooperation with business and civic organizations and the Grayling State Bank.

Participating clergymen will include Rev. Steven A. Bach, Assembly of God Church; Father William Rabior, St. Mary's Catholic Church; Elder Jay Doty, Latter Day Saints-Retired; Rev. George E. Spencer, Mitchelson Memorial United Methodist Church; Rev. Robert F. Haskel, St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church; Rev. Otis C. Smith, Free Methodist Church; Father Louis Ivandic, Mercy Hospital Chapel. Sister Cecilia will serve as song leader.

Everyone is invited to join in and participate in this Thanksgiving Day of Praise.

Car-Deer Collisions Kill 10 Whitetails

Ten whitetails were victims of car/deer accidents in the county last week, reducing the population for deer hunters swarming the area for the season's opening weekend. Motorists are urged to be on the lookout for the wily animals who are being stirred by hunter activity in the woods.

Seventeen personal damage accidents were reported, seven involving drivers who spun into ditches when icy roads struck the area last Wednesday evening. Two resulted in personal injuries.

In other police activity, seven breaking and enterings occurred, six malicious destruction incidents were reported and deputies were called to investigate a number of incidents of suspicious behavior.

Deputies aided in the search for two lost hunters, two housefires were answered and four larcenies were reported. Deputies made one arrest for a concealed weapon and four DUIL arrests were made.

A number of miscellaneous other complaints completed the police report, which tallied over 80 complaints during a busy period for lawmen.

Frederic Man Charged in Shooting Incident

A shooting incident last Thursday night in Frederic resulted in the arrest of a Frederic man who was expected to be arraigned in 83rd District Court this week on felonious assault charges.

According to the Crawford County Sheriff's Department, no one was injured when the subject barricaded himself in his home and fired shots from a deer rifle at two passersby. Deputies were called to the scene at 9:18 p.m. and were joined by Grayling City Police officers and the Michigan State Police.

Sheriff Joe White said the man was persuaded to give himself up and surrendered to officers without resistance.

He is lodged in the county jail pending his arraignment.

Trailer Blast Injures Three Downstate

Sheriff's deputies and the Crawford County Ambulance were called to Higgins Lake about 2:00 a.m. last Friday morning when three deer hunters were seriously burned when their trailer in rural Roscommon County exploded.

The victims were identified as Robert D. Smith, 29, Drayton Plains, Daniel L. Gustafson, 21, Pontiac and Jay Smallie, 24, of Highland. After the explosion one man was able to walk to a nearby road for help and the other two victims were found wandering nearby.

All three were transported to Grayling's Mercy Hospital for treatment and then transferred to St. Mary's Hospital Burn Unit in Saginaw.

The trailer was destroyed in the blast which deputies theorize was ignited when a lighted cigarette touched off a gas explosion.

GOAL Pancake-Sausage Dinner

The Grayling High School GOAL program is sponsoring a pancake & sausage dinner Thursday, November 20th, from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the St. Mary's Family Center. The cost is $2.50 for adults and $1.25 for children under 12, this is for all you can eat. Everyone is welcome.

School Board Hires Architects

The Crawford-Ausable School Board has hired an architectural firm and a construction management company to aid in a preliminary study pursuant to making a final decision on construction of a new Middle School in the District.

The board accepted the recommendation of a citizen's advisory committee who in June endorsed construction of a new school as opposed to renovation of the existing building, now 64 years old and ravaged by the passage of time.

Elzinga and Volkers, architects from Holland, Mi., and Kingscott, a construction consulting organization from Kalamazoo, have been retained to provide further analysis, and, additionally, to recommend a plan of action for the board to consider.

Among the factors to be studied are possible county sites, school grades to be included, and whether attachment, as an educational "pod" to the high school, is a feasible option.

A School Board Work Study meeting is scheduled for December 4th.

Dog Licenses Now Available

The 1981 dog licenses are available now. If you are going south for the winter, etc. this will allow you to purchase a license before you leave.

The price is $3.00 for males or unsexed dogs. $5.00 for females.

After March 1st these prices will double.

To purchase a license it is necessary to have a valid Rabies vaccination certificate for the dog. Licenses are available from the County Treasurer, Joe Wakeley, the Animal Control Officer, Marge Mathews, the Beaver Creek Township Treasurer, Lovells Twp. Treasurer, South Branch Twp. Treasurer, Frederic Twp. Treasurer and the City of Grayling.

You may also purchase a license by mail by sending proof of rabies and a check to the Crawford County Treasurer.

Gyms Are Open!

Art and Recreation Highlight Grayling Community Programs

The big news from the Grayling Community School Office this week is the announcement that area gyms are now open for Adult Recreation. This year's adult recreation program will operate under the same regulations as last year. Gym admission is $1.25 per evening, with gyms being open from 7:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. Grayling's adult recreation schedule includes volleyball in the Grayling Elementary School on Monday evenings, Open Basketball in the Grayling Middle School gym on Tuesday and Thursday evenings and Open Basketball in the Frederic Elementary School gym on Wednesday evenings. SLIM PICKIN'—If the Grayling Buck Pole was any indication, the first weekend of the hunting season was pretty dull, at least from the standpoint of deer kill. Only four registered hunters entered their prizes, with Harold Baker of Grayling walking off with $110 in prize money. Baker won cash prizes for largest buck (177 lbs.), biggest rack (10 pts.) and first deer entered. Claiming the $10 award for youngest hunter was 16 year old Vern Overmyer, Grayling, who also won a $20 gift certificate from R & H Sports Center.

Craig Stewart of Grayling and John Bristow of Madison Heights both claimed prizes of $10 each. According to the Chamber of Commerce, over 200 hunters had registered prior to the midnight Friday deadline, with Arnold Bader of Grayling walking off with the biggest prize of all, $175 in the 50/50 drawing. Beaver Creek Approves Tax Abatement for Weyerhaeuser

The Beaver Creek Township Board Monday night passed a special resolution providing tax relief for Weyerhaeuser Company in the construction and operation of its multi-million dollar wood products facility on Four Mile Road.

The resolution complements other measures taken to pave the way for construction of the $62 million plant, expected to employ 150 at the site and an additional 100 in related occupations.

According to Beaver Creek Township Clerk Florence Nelson, the resolution provides tax abatement for 12 years, and was approved under the provisions of Public Act 198, a Michigan statute. The Act provides special tax treatment to reduce the company's tax by 50% on "a completely new plant", including structure, M&E and F&F. No exemption is provided for tax on the property itself.

On hand for the Monday meeting was Weyerhaeuser Project Manager Tony Moore. Current plans call for full scale construction to begin next year with plant start-up anticipated in 1982.

Kirtland To Host Training Program for Township Officials

Kirtland Community College will be hosting a Training Program for New Township Officials in the 14 county northeast Michigan area on December 6, 1980, from 8:15 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. in the Student Center building on campus. Registration for the full day session is $20.00, which includes coffee, rolls, lunch, and handout materials.

This training session will provide an overview of township government, as well as special meetings for new clerks, treasurers, trustees, and supervisors. The morning portion will highlight organization of township meetings and the open meetings act. The afternoon portion will be divided up into three areas: parliamentary procedure for township officials, and two portions on the powers, duties, procedures, and responsibilities of clerks and/or treasurers. Although "veteran" township officials are encouraged to attend to brush up on their skills, the workshop is especially valuable to new officers who must moderate meetings and manage township governments.

The Training Program for New Township Officials is being co-sponsored by the Northeast Michigan Public Officials Training Program (funded by the Upper Great Lakes Regional Commission), the Michigan Township Association, and Kirtland Community College.

To insure registration, a completed registration form should be received by November 22nd. Forms may be acquired by calling Marian Hennigar at Kirtland at 517-275-5121, ext. 226.

Do You Qualify for Food Stamps

by: Jack Mason

"A person does not necessarily have to be drawing Public Assistance from this Department to qualify for food stamps," according to Patricia Thomas, Director of the Crawford County Department of Social Services. She went on to explain that in, fact, the Food Stamp Program is a United States Department of Agriculture Program designed to upgrade the nutritional habits of the American public, assure better health, wiser usage of available foods, and promote money-saving shopping habits. Other benefits to cost-conscious Americans list less spoilage, less waste, lower preparation time and even lower fuel bills." All these factors, when considered over a month's time, are really noticeable, no matter how small the family, and become extremely important economic factors during the course of a year."

Thomas, interviewed in the Department of Social Services building at Milltown Center, at M-72 East and south I-75 bypass, says that "many people have the mistaken idea that we are only a welfare office, a place to apply for cash grants. Actually, our Department not only helps to supplement the income of those families and individuals who are temporarily, for one reason or another, unable to properly provide for their own shelter and food, but

Audubon to Meet at Kirtland

The next meeting of the Kirtland Audubon Chapter will be Friday, November 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the Natural Resource Room at Kirtland Community College.

Our speaker for the evening will be Mr. Fred Case, of Saginaw. Mr. Case will speak on "In Search of the American Pitcher Plant."

All community members are invited to attend. If you have any questions about the Chapter, please call Lois Brown at 348-5768.

Since growing children need a far different diet than most adults, we are supplied with pamphlets on that. It's free. All one has to do is ask for it. And that's just part of our job as a Social Services Department."

Thomas said it is well-known to most people in the medical profession, to the County Health Department, to the school nurses and in senior center facilities, such as we have here in Grayling, that proper

Milliken Recommends Budget Trimming

Local Schools Brace For State Aid Cuts

by Joe Schrader

The Crawford-Ausable School District will feel the crunch of state budget cuts proposed by Governor Milliken last week, but foresight by school administrators will lessen their overall impact.

Assistant Superintendent Paul Lerg said Friday that local administrators expect the financial effect to be significant, although the final figures will not be known until the state budget is finally approved in Lansing, probably in early January.

A week ago in a Television appearance, Milliken announced recommended cuts designed to trim the budget by an additional $288.5 million, bringing to more than $1 billion the total reduction in state spending from the levels of January 1, 1980. The governor's recommendation included a further cut of $65 million in general aid to schools, a move that would bring the total amount of such aid to $233 million less than schools got from the state in the past fiscal year.

Elementary School Activities

On October 31, Mrs. Pomeroy came in to Mrs. Fleming's and Mrs. Bovee's fifth grade classes at the Grayling Elementary School and showed us how to make tortillas. First, she took some flour and baking soda, water, and salt. Then she rolled it up into balls and then she flattened them out and put them on a hot plate. She left them on for about 10 seconds on one side and 10 seconds on the other.

We enjoyed eating the tortillas at our Halloween party.

Written by Jerry Gauthier,
5th grade.

Mrs. McEvers' fourth grade class each got a part of a section of a long piece of paper. They drew a picture of something about Michigan. They made the state bird, state flower, etc. They made Paul Bunyan and the Blue Ox. They put it up on the bulletin board in the Central Office and invite people to see the mural. The idea came from the section on their state in the new social studies texts. Written by Heather Watts and Jill Brackenbury.

Bits O'Talk

by Fay Bovee

Guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Pamerleau for ten days over the Thanksgiving holiday will be their son, Major John Pamerleau and wife, Major Susan Pamerleau of Stafford, Va. They expect to arrive on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Watts and family spent several days on vacation visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson and Mr. and Mrs. George Watts in Pontiac.

Mrs. Jeannette Kitchen spent 12 days during the later part of October with her children, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Nelson and two sons in Vancouver, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kelly (nee Ricky Nelson) and three children in Portland, Ore. Another daughter, husband and son, Bob and Becky Lawe have moved into their new home in Grayling Manor. They had spent some time with Jeannette. Mark Nelson, his wife and son of Saginaw are expected for the Thanksgiving holidays. A phone call from another son, Michael Nelson, of Austin, Texas, informed his mother that he had been initiated into Phi Beta Kappa, national education honorary society. Mike will receive his Masters degree from the University of Texas in December.

Mrs. Susan McCurdy, Mrs. Marcia Rutter, Mary Goss, Mrs. Dolores Stillwagon, Mrs. Cindy Olson, Mrs. Lisa Scheer and Opal Hamlin, new salon coordinator for the Golden Touch, attended an educational seminar for hairdressers at the Park Place, Traverse City, on November 9 and 10. Customers can look forward to seeing Cindy Olson back at the salon the first week in December.

Guests at the Jerry Hayes' home the past weekend were his brother John Hayes, who came to go deer hunting and their mother, Mrs. Hettie Hayes, both of Franklin, N. Carolina.

121 Donors at High School Blood Bank

Thanks to Sandy Stillwagon, Chairperson of the November 12th Blood Bank at the Grayling High School, and all her student co-workers, the Bank was an outstanding success—121 Donors came to give their precious gift—a pint of their own blood to help preserve someone's life!

Only once before in the seven years that Grayling High School students have been holding Red Cross Blood Banks staffed and operated by themselves has a larger number of donors turned out, and that was three years ago when 128 Donors came to give.

Crawford County Chapter/American Red Cross extends its deep appreciation to all of the High Schoolers who worked as Volunteers and who gave a pint of their blood! You have made a major contribution to the health and welfare of your fellow Americans.

And, as always, our whole hearted gratitude to all the non-High School Donors who came to give a pint of their blood to assure the Bank being an outstanding success!

nutrition means much better health, more activity, proper sleeping habits, a happier outlook on life and a longer life. "We can't guarantee that will happen just because someone gets Food Stamps. They have to know how to use them, what to use them on, and to look for values. Generic (no brand name) labels are available in most area stores. These are excellent buys, often over-looked, since they are so much lower-priced." Thomas explained that these are often the best known brands. "The use of Food Stamps for these products can really make those Stamps stretch a long way."

Some users of the USDA Stamps wonder why they can't be used for purchases of products other than food in the super market. "Well, alcohol and cigarettes are obvious, and paper products, soaps, pet food, light bulbs and the like are not meant for nutritional human consumption," she smiled in response.

The Department of Social Services urges that those in need, those who don't have transportation, those who feel that using USDA Food Stamps means "receiving welfare" or that those who are just curious about whether they are qualified, pick up the phone and ask. The local number is 348-7691, listed under the Michigan State Government, long distance calls will be accepted collect, providing the caller is inquiring about the Food Stamp Program specifically, and identifies the program.

More detailed information on the property dietary use of the USDA Food Stamps will appear in future issues of the Avalanche.

Bits O'Talk

By Fay Bovee

Erin Elizabeth Welsh, infant daughter of Tom and Lynn Welsh of Bridgeport was christened at St. Christopher's Church in Bridgeport on Sunday, November 16, 1980. Godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Gus Williams, great-aunt and uncle. Attending from Grayling were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Akers, Larry Lee Akers, Maribeth Akers, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Welsh and Mrs. Leda DuBois, and from Millington, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Reed. Following the christening, the entire congregation were invited for refreshments to meet the newest member of the parish and then the family returned to Tom and Lynn's for dinner.

Another of the mighty poplars that must have been planted so long ago in our city fell to the chainsaws in the yard of the Earl Whaley on Michigan Avenue. The tree which looked to be at least five feet in diameter may even have been around before the city was settled. It had reached its maturity and was becoming a danger to the neighborhood so the Whaleys had it removed.

The idea behind the program is to teach children archery, all the equipment is furnished, the cost will be .75 cents a week.

This is open to everyone up through the 8th grade. For further information contact Marty VanDeVen at 348-8663.

AARP TO Meet

The regular meeting of the AARP will be held November 24th at 2:00 p.m. There will be a program and refreshments. Please come and bring a friend.

COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SERVICE

"Cooperative Extension Service programs are open to all without regard to race, color, national origin or sex."

By Sue Louchart

Hello! I'm Chris Clover here with news from the Crawford County 4-H Clubs.

Heidi Stephenson reported to me that a new Cooking Club called the Kitchen Magicians are meeting on Wednesdays after school with Mrs. Lloyd Nevins. They have ten members. At their first meeting they learned about the difference between dry and liquid measuring of ingredients. Cooked pudding was compared to instant for taste and time involved in the preparing of it. Cupcakes for the 4-H Banquet were made and decorated by the members. In the weeks to come the basic four will be learned and preparing of many other foods. Sounds like lots of fun. To help with the cost of the food to practice with to become Kitchen Magicians they will be selling pens.

Margie and Jan Olsen's new horse club is full with ten members. They will meet at the Methodist Church to elect officers and to pick a neat name for the club on Thursday evening.

The Fun with Needles and Nooks Club visited the Panhandle Shop on Saturday. Mrs. Carol Case gave them a look at all the new items for Christmas she has in the shop. She will be getting more in shortly and they hope to go back to see them.

If anyone would like to join one or more of the many clubs or start a new club just call the 4-H Office at 348-5123 and let Ann or Lori know. Look for me next week with more news about clubs and what's new in 4-H. See you!

The Grayling Leader Dogs for the Blind are having a "Bake Sale" on Saturday, Nov. 22 at Glen's Market starting at 10:00 a.m.

The proceeds will go to help the club pay for their trip to Rochester to take their dogs to school for their final training and placement with a blind person.

The First PresidencyBEYOND CHEAP GRACE

A TERM which is being used with more and more frequency, especially by writers who are viewing religious trends in the United States, is "cheap grace." The term is not new; it has been used in theological discussions for a long time to refer to the idea of attaining salvation by accepting Jesus Christ as Savior without any deep commitment to the demands of discipleship to which our Lord calls us.

The debate has been going on almost as long as Christianity itself about the matter of God's grace and the means by which salvation is accomplished. The reason the subject is once more receiving so much attention is the emergence of the "electronic" church as an increasing presence in television broadcasting. Religious programming in this medium has grown into big business in the United States, and most of the content is characterized by a gospel which very well illustrates the concept of cheap grace. The message is not about the cost of discipleship but about belief in Jesus as a shortcut to the good life. The aim of the evangelists on these expensively staged shows seems to be to offer well washed and well groomed success as an advertisement for Christianity. It is the "Lord, turn all the lights green on the boulevard of my life" school of theology and should be giving persons who think deeply about the true meaning of the gospel much concern.

Is the essence of the gospel just a matter of "warm fuzies," "forgiveness and acceptance," a grandfatherly God who hates to see us sin and forgives us infinitely when we do? If so, what was the value of Christ's suffering and dying and being resurrected, and why make salvation contingent on belief in Christ? The scriptures tell us that we are saved by grace—by God's gift of his Son. But to what are we saved? Did Christ die so that we could get a better job or a larger house? Happiness in this life comes in response to the sure knowledge that because of Christ we do not have to struggle to defeat other persons in order to gain position and status. Salvation in Christ means the victory is already won. We are freed from our anxieties about this life to be the loving, helpful, and trustworthy followers he is calling us to be. This is the good news of the gospel.

For those of us who are Reorganized Latter Day Saints, however, there is even more. If we accept Christ, our salvation—our coming once more into God's presence—is assured. Moreover, when we do, we come inevitably for judgment. Our deeds, our choices will have shaped us and molded us, and we will be judged by those choices. So we are saved by grace, and we are judged by our own responses—not someone else's. Thus the God-given principle of agency is preserved. If we are to be penalized, it will be by our sins—not for them. If we are to be rewarded, it will be by our good deeds—not for them. The sum total of a lifetime of good choices built upon a foundation of Christ's teachings, or poor choices built on some other foundation, makes us what we are to become. Not even the miracle of God's mercy can change that result, for his judgment is eternal. Thus we are not saved but judged by our responses. The best part is that as we respond to God's grace we are blessed by the fruits of the Spirit. We grow in understanding, and we know more and more the joy of surrender. As we make the right choices, in a sense we are co-creating, with God, our eternal selves. We do what we do not so much to avoid punishment or earn reward. Rather, we do so in response to God's grace.

It is important to remember, however, that whatever we do does "count." There are rules about being happy and fulfilled which we break only at our peril. Be at peace with our neighbors, love and cherish and protect our families, get rid of hatred and envy, tell the truth, avoid temptation, don't murder or steal. These rules describe not the way we feel life ought to be but the way life is. Our desire, therefore, ought to be to live these principles in response to God's love.

Salvation is by grace, and the costs of that belief are by no means cheap. In fact, they are eternally dear. Jesus Christ is the only name given under heaven whereby we can be saved, and the acknowledgement of that fact is worth the investment of our whole lives.

Directory Out

A colorful autumn scene is featured on the cover of General Telephone's new, larger directory now being distributed.

Lois Reagan, division manager for the company, said the new directory will soon be in the hands of customers in the communities of Gaylord, Grayling, Higgins Lake, Houghton Lake, Roscommon and Vanderbilt.

The cover photograph continues a naturalist theme adopted by the company to reflect its concern for environmental protection, Mrs. Reagan said.

Inside, customers will find few changes. Additional customers and additional listings for present customers account for more white as well as yellow pages.

Helpful Information

Emergency number listings, dialing instructions and telephone company service numbers, business office numbers and bill payment locations appear on Pages 1 through 3. Included in the emergency number listings is the toll-free number of the poison control center serving area residents.

The name, address, and telephone numbers of gas, electric, and water utilities, as well as the telephone company appear on Page 4.

Long distance dialing information, time zones, rate information, and area code examples continue to appear on Pages 5, 6, and 7 and page 8 includes a detailed explanation of the telephone bill.

Questions concerning the directory, or any other phase of telephone service, should be directed to the General Telephone service office, Mrs. Reagan said.

RICHARD MILLIMAN

Time once more for one of our infrequent strolls, barefoot among the pot-pourri...

I see by the media that the venerable Bob Hope launched his own booklet of a presidential campaign, but it came too late to do much good...except for the television ratings, perhaps.

He advertised that Johnny Carson would give his nominating speech, Tony Randall would be his campaign manager, Angie Dickinson would be his media specialist, and Paul Lynde would be in charge of dirty tricks.

Unfortunately for the voters, he was only kidding. If Bob Hope really had sought to win the presidency, 1980 was probably the year he would have succeeded. Obviously most of the people were looking for something they didn't have.

But everything will work out for the nation, no matter what happens. I was impressed by the columnar comment from Wall Street Journal Editor Emeritus Vermont Royster, taking a detached view of autumn 1980 and seeing the poverty of choice as perceived by many voters.

"We can never be sure who, raised to the office, will rise to the occasion," commented Mr. Royster. "That uncertainty may not be cheerful, but the comfort is that time and again the challenge has been met, ever since a simple country lawyer of whom no one expected much found the strength to hold the union together...

"Given the people's present mood, I have a feeling we will see a turning, no matter who is elected...In the end, it's the people more than any president who point the course."

Congress has passed and the President has signed a new law designed to prevent surprise police searches of newsrooms.

It requires police to request voluntary cooperation when seeking information from news-gathering organizations or to use a subpoena that can be contested in court, rather than arriving unannounced with a search warrant.

ROSCOMMON GUARDSMAN WINS RECRUITING AWARD—Camp Grayling SP5 Mary Lou Hubbard of Roscommon is the 1980 recipient of Camp Grayling's "Wells Recruiting Award."

The Award, named in honor of the donor, CW4 (Retired) Perry Wells, is a $100.00 bill and is given annually to that Guardsman who contributes most to Camp Grayling's recruiting effort. CW4 Wells worked at Camp Grayling for over 25 years and has chosen this method of continuing his service to the Organized Militia of Michigan.

SP5 Hubbard, a 3-year veteran of the Guard who has just reenlisted for 6 years, is the unit clerk for the 1071st Maintenance Company at Camp Grayling. In civilian life, she lives in Roscommon with her husband, Steve, and daughter, Heather, and works as a waitress for Fred's Restaurant.

Also receiving recognition in the form of $25.00 awards for their efforts in helping Camp Grayling achieve 109% of authorized strength were SP4 Scott Hanson of the 1438th Engineer Detachment and Capt. Dan Schrock, Camp Grayling's Fire Chief.

Property Tax Relief Still Needed

by State Rep. Ralph Ostling

Despite claims of apathy about the Presidential choices and other questions on the ballot, voter participation in Michigan reached one of the highest levels in years during last week's election.

Nearly 70 percent of the state's eligible voters cast their ballots, and I believe that one of the major reasons for the increase in the number of persons taking the time to vote was caused by the interest in the three property tax reform plans on the ballot.

All three plans—Proposals A (Smith-Bullard), C (the Governor's plan) and D (Tisch)—failed, but I believe that there is still a strong sentiment for some form of property tax relief, and I look for the Legislature to attach the problem early in the 1981-82 session. Along with workers' compensation reform, and sunsetting state programs and agencies, I believe that property tax relief is an area in need of change if we are to make Michigan a better state in which to live.

In addition, voters did not buy a plan to replace lost revenues caused by halving the property taxes with a 1.5 cent increase in the sales tax.

We've seen what the voter's don't want. Now it's time to get to work on a proposal to reform the property tax structure in accordance with the wishes of the majority of Michigan citizens.

County Public Transit Update

Election day, November 4, 1980 proved to be a busy day for our Dial-A-Ride buses. We carried 277 passengers with 31 people taking advantage of our "Free Ride to the Polls" offer. However, due to the kind and generous contributions we received from some of our wonderful riders, NO FARE REVENUE was lost, in fact, the free rides were more than covered. We thank you for "Becoming our Friend"!

Ridership is up more than 65% compared to last year. Passenger ridership shows a total of 67,923 in 10 months, compared to 1979 total ridership of 50,392. Since our inception in 1976, we have transported over 211,000 passengers. This clearly shows the popularity and need of Public Transportation in Crawford County. We are very optimistic of the future, even with the projected State budget cuts, and should you have any suggestions for improving our service, please give us a call at 348-8215.

Volunteers

Volunteers are playing an increasingly vital role in the whole education picture. They improve instruction by more individual help to students under supervision of classroom teacher, increase school/community relations, enrich curriculum by their experiences and hobbies, help close the "generation gap" by providing more opportunities for children and adults to exchange ideas.

Several volunteers are busy helping this year in many areas in our elementary schools. Tutoring children in remedial reading, helping in the lunchroom, playground supervision and helping classroom teachers are some examples of ways volunteers are helping.

The reading room is still "short handed". If you have one morning a week you would like to share...there is a place for you to help. Call the Crawford AuSable School Central Office, 348-7641 ext. 52, today. We are waiting to explain the Volunteer Aide Program to YOU.

Senior Citizen Homemaker Service

It looks like "Ole Man Winter" is upon us. Well, we must think positively, it won't be long until the howling of the north wind will change to the refreshing breezes of spring.

Our many thanks for the support from our Crawford County Citizens for the passing of the millage for the most deserving Senior Citizen Center. We will all benefit from this millage: (1) because the same services may be used by all; (2) because the "under 65" today are the elderly of tomorrow and patterns may be changing. I thank all of you again for your intuitive-ness in passing this millage.

Homemaker Services are still available to Crawford County Senior Residents 60 years of age or older who are handicapped. For purposes of this program, handicapped is defined as the inability to perform daily household tasks. There are no income requirements for this service, however, if you can afford to pay we do accept donations. We also have a suggested fee scale for your guidance and convenience.

Many of our present Clients have gone south to live with relatives or friends for the winter, therefore we have some openings in the Homemaker Program. So call us and we will do our best to meet your needs.

Are you aware of our new Day Care Service? This is a service that allows a person that has an elderly or handicapped person in their care to bring them into the Senior Citizen Center for the day while they work, shop or whatever. For more information about this new service, call at the Senior Citizen Center (348-9314).

If you have need of the Homemaker Service or know of anyone that does please feel free to call the Senior Citizen Center at (348-9314), or drop in and see us or even join us in our congregate dining at 12:00 p.m. We are located at 308 Lawndale. We would love to see you.

THE POACHER'S TOOLS—Conservation Officer Mike Mol, stationed at Houghton Lake, checks over evidence confiscated from poachers who were caught violating Michigan's game laws. Handheld spotlights are a favorite tool of the poachers, who has an accomplice temporarily blind the deer with the high-intensity spotlight at night. The deer freezes motionless—an easy target for the poacher's rifle. "Some people wouldn't think of breaking any other law, but they think nothing of killing an animal illegally," Mol says. "That deer is valued by the State at a minimum of $100. Poaching it is equal to stealing at least $100 from the people of Michigan. Multiply that one deer by the thousands taken each year by poachers and you begin to realize the damage that poachers are really doing to our natural resources." To help Michigan conservation officers like Mike Mol protect our game and fish, report all poaching. Violations can be reported by calling the Department of Natural Resources toll-free 24-hour law enforcement hot line, 1-800-292-7800.

Hydro-Electric Program Expanded

East Lansing—October 9, 1980—Rural communities who wish to reduce their utility bills by building or reactivating small hydro-electric generating facilities may get a boost from a new Federal program announced today by the White House.

Philip Roberts, Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) State Director in Michigan, said that "Under the program, FmHA low interest loans will be made available for hydro-electric projects." FmHA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The program will help small rural communities, many of which operate their own generating facilities, stabilize their electricity costs and reduce dependence upon fossil fuels.

The change or regulation specifies that loans can be made to:

- Restore deactivated dams and hydro-electric generators.

- Enhance or improve existing plants.

- Construct new facilities.

The Department of Energy has identified over 3,000 small dams which were once used for hydro-electric power and are considered promising to rebuild. Those in areas of less than 10,000 population would be eligible for FmHA assistance under the Agency's Community Facilities Program.

FmHA will process loan applications in the same manner as for any other Community Facility loan, including the determination that other credit is not available at reasonable rates and terms. These FmHA loans carry an interest rate of 5 percent for up to 40 years.

FmHA also can finance connecting lines to the nearest practical point of an existing system.

Potential loan applicants are to be public bodies, such as municipalities, counties, districts, authorities or other subdivisions of a state. Non-profit organizations such as associations and cooperatives also will be eligible if they have legal authority to operate such facilities.

For further information and processing, interested persons should contact the local FmHA county office listed under U.S. Government, Department of Agriculture, in the telephone directory. The county office will refer interested individuals to the appropriate FmHA district office serving the area.

"Gang of 23" Visit Hall of Fame

READY TO GO—The 18 Rocket Footballers and their coaches as they prepare to depart on their visit to Ohio and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. (Joe Schrader photo)

Among the members of the "Gang of 23" are: Greg Burns, Buzzy Partello, Dale Prieskorn, Claude Halstead, Don Lange, Delbert Stadler, Scott Trudeau, Andy Vanderstelt, Todd Whitcher, Bartsie Cross, George Dunkin, Riley McNamara, Jon Nicholas, Chad Swander, Peter Hus, Jeff Branch, John Meagher, Jack Millikin, Mark Willoughby, Jeff Prieskorn, Clay Horton, Dan Sattler, and Mike Shearer.

Question: What do Mark Willoughby, Jeff Prieskorn, Clay Horton, Dan Sattler and Mike Shearer have in common? Shattered nerves, high blood pressure, and gray hair, with what hair that's left. All this is a result after chaperoning 18-12 and 12 year old boys from the Grayling Rocket Football League to the Pro-Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio this past weekend.

The "Incredible Journey" began last Friday morning at the McDonalds Restaurant when the "gang of 23" began their 800 mile round trip trek to Akron, Ohio. After confiscating the magazines that George Dunkin and Todd Whitcher were holding up to the rear window as they passed the trucks, the group arrived in Akron in the afternoon and set their sights on the Holiday Inn with the Rooftop swimming pool. With the kids swarming the lobby like a bunch of bees, the night manager behind the desk started pulling out his hair and screamed "Why me!"

Getting situated in the rooms on the 18th floor (away from the crowd and near the pool), the group then attacked a local restaurant (separate checks to help out the waitress). After leaving the restaurant as though it was hit by an A-Bomb, the swarm then prepared for the ultimate in style, swimming 20 stories up in the middle of the fall. After scaring all other guests away, the group proceeded to play several assorted games, such as dodge football, tag, keep away, chicken fights, and drown the coaches. The finishing touch at poolside Friday night was the predictable towel-snapping contest, with Jon Nicholas coming out the loser, and Bartsie Cross now known as having the fastest towel in the North.

Bedding the kids down was a treat in itself. After convincing Greg Burns, Scott Trudeau, Dale Prieskorn, and Andy Vanderstelt that the hotel guests were quite capable of pushing Annoying, isn't it? We who love to think of ourselves as FREE are always being asked to conform. And if we show our spirit of independence by ignoring some stuffy convention — the shock wave registers on society's seismograph like an earthquake.

Despite manners and customs should't each of us be making his own decisions?

Important decisions — moral and spiritual, should never be based on conformity. They must express our faith, always keeping God's purposes in focus.

Every one of us is free to search the Bible's truth. In God's Word we find foundations on which to build our lives. In His promises we discover our hope and destiny.

Decisions we base on the Bible's truth today will be an influence for good in society tomorrow.
